MIDHURST TOWN COUNCIL

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Midhurst Town Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members and co-opted members whenever they conduct the business of the Council, including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed, or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council.

This Code of Conduct is based on the Seven Principles of Public Life, also known as the Nolan Principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

2. Definitions

For the purposes of this Code, a 'co-opted member' is a person who is not a member of the Council but who is either a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, or a member of, and represents the Council on any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Council, and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee.

For the purposes of this Code, a 'meeting' is a meeting of the Council, any of its committees, sub-committees, joint committees or joint sub-committees.

For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes a co-opted member of the Council.

3. Member obligations

- 3.1 Members must at all times abide by the Council's current Policies and Procedures.
- 3.2 A member wishing to actively work on a project as a member of the Council may only do so if given express permission by the Council (via the Council, Chairman, Committee or Working Party).
- 3.3 A member shall not actively encourage residents or employees of local businesses to support the member's views on Council matters, unless given express permission by the Council to do so.
- 3.4 Members will communicate via email, using only their dedicated Council email address.
- 3.5 When a member of the Council acts, claims to act or gives the impression of acting as a representative of the Council, he/she has the following obligations:

Midhurst Town Council

- Persons shall behave in such a way that a reasonable person would regard as respectful.
- Persons shall not act in a way which a reasonable person would regard as bullying or intimidatory.
- Persons shall not seek to improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.
- Persons shall use the resources of the Council in accordance with its requirements.
- Persons shall not disclose information which is confidential or where disclosure is prohibited by law.

3.6 The Code applies to all forms of communication and interaction, including:

- at face-to-face meetings
- at online or telephone meetings
- in written communication
- in verbal communication
- in non-verbal communication
- in electronic and social media communication, posts, statements and comments

3.7 There are no circumstances in which an individual member can issue instruction to a member of staff, or contractor without the express permission of the Council, Chairman, Committee or Working Party

3.8 A Councillor has no power outside of the Council Chamber.

4. Registration of interests

4.1 Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, or the member's election or the co-opted member's appointment (where that is later), said person shall register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A and B.

4.2 Upon the re-election of a member or the re-appointment of a co-opted member, said person shall within 28 days re-register with the Monitoring Officer any interests in Appendices A and B.

4.3 A member shall register with the Monitoring Officer any change to interests or new interests in Appendices A and B within 28 days of becoming aware of it.

4.4 A member need only declare the existence but not the details of any interest which the Monitoring Officer agrees is a 'sensitive interest'. A sensitive interest is one which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead the member or a person connected with the member to be subject to violence or intimidation.

5. Declaration of interests at meetings

- 5.1 Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. Said person only has to declare what the interest is if it is not already entered in the member's register of interests or if said person has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it.
- 5.2 Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A which is a sensitive interest, the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. If it is a sensitive interest which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the member shall disclose said person has an interest but not the nature of it.
- 5.3 Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix B, the member shall not vote on the matter. Said person may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.
- 5.4 A member only has to declare said person's interest in Appendix B if it is not already entered in said person's register of interests or said person has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it or if said person speaks on the matter. If said person holds an interest in Appendix B which is a sensitive interest not already disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, he/she shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.
- 5.5 Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than an interest of a person in Appendix A), the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. Said person may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

6. Dispensations

- 6.1 On a written request made to the Council's proper officer, the Council may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion and vote on a matter at a meeting even if said person has an interest in Appendices A and B if the Council believes that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member to take part or it is otherwise, appropriate to grant a dispensation.
